MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of OHIO material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

THE EDITOR, 4649 YARMOUTH LANE, YOUNGSTOWN, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission from the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

MEMBERSHIP
THE OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY is a non-profit, federally tax-exempt, State-Chartered organization. Individuals, libraries or societies may apply for membership. Annual dues are $19.00 for individuals and $25.00 for joint members at the same address, for the calendar year. Life membership is $300, and joint life membership is $350. All members receive the quarterly journal, THE REPORT, and the monthly NEWSLETTER with membership.

MAILING
All issues are mailed directly from Mansfield, and any problems you may experience with delivery, or changes of address, must be directed to the Ohio Genealogical Society in Mansfield, not to the Editor.

ANCESTOR CHARTS
Ancestor charts may be submitted to O.G.S. for publication in future editions of the "Members' Charts Book." Charts will no longer be published in THE REPORT.

BOOK NOTICE POLICY
Books which are currently in-print and available for sale will be noted in THE REPORT upon receipt of a gratis copy donated to the OGS Library. It is our policy to publish brief notices, not critical reviews. All books must be sent DIRECTLY to OGS Library, with complete ordering instructions and price. All other materials donated to the Library will be listed in the Accession List in the NEWSLETTER.

EDITORIAL

CONCERNING "ANCESTOR CHARTS" IN THE REPORT

The Editor has decided that it is no longer expedient for the Ohio Genealogical Society to attempt to publish members' ancestor charts in THE REPORT. With a membership approaching 7000, it is impossible for us to provide this service in a timely manner to all of our new members.

Therefore, ancestor charts will be eliminated as a feature at the end of 1989. All charts which have been typed for publication will appear in the 1989 issues. All others will be sent to O.G.S. headquarters where they will be collected for future editions of "Members' Ancestor Charts" publications.

At this time, the Editor wishes to recognize the dedication of editorial assistant, LUETTA BOLLINGER COATES, who has typed these charts for THE REPORT for the past twenty years. Without her diligent efforts, we could not have continued this feature as long as we have.

DEATH ROLL.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF OHIO GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, LANCASTER, OHIO, MAY 6th, 7tH AND 8tH 1902 was published by the Commercial Printing Co., Akron OH, 1902. The work contains a death roll of G.A.R. members who died during the preceding year, arranged by the number of the Post to which they belonged. A comprehensive list of the post numbers are listed with the counties at the end of this article. There were 749 Posts in Ohio still in existence in 1902.

We would be interested in obtaining similar "death rolls" from the other volumes of these PROCEEDINGS, if our readers can supply them.

REUNION OF THE SIXTH OHIO VOLUNTEER CAVALRY, 1906

Arminta Fenstermaker, 587 Kenmore SE, Warren OH 44483

The following article is taken from the Warren Daily News, 3 Oct 1906, front page. This Regiment was organized in Warren and made up primarily of people from the Trumbull County area. By 1906, many of them had scattered or died. The article is helpful in pinpointing later residences of these Civil War soldiers.

OLD COMRADES MEET. FORTY-FIRST REUNION OF THE SIXTH O.V.C.

Until October of next year, the majority of the comrades of the Sixth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry have parted. The 41st reunion of that regiment closed here Tuesday afternoon. On the whole the reunion held yesterday was one of the best yet. The attendance was large and there were many present who had not been to a reuion for some time. The afternoon session took the form of a short business meeting and camp fire. Following the call to order was a song by a quartet from Girard, then came the reports of the committees. The committee on officers reported as follows: Pres. John H. McDonald, Detroit, Mich; Vice Pres. Wallace Bullard, Andover; Rec.Secy. Charles Wolcott, Cleveland; Fin.Secy. Wells Bushnell, Cleveland; committee on arrangments, John R. Lachman, Jas.Trimble, Frank Ritezel. These officers and the committee were elected. A violin solo by Miss Sager followed the reports of the committee.

ONE ARMED COMRADE

Addresses were made by Truman Reeves of Sacramento, Cal., who has not met with the regiment in a reunion for 33 years. Mr. Reeves' talk was an interesting one, as he told of his life in the west since he had been sent there for his health, over 30 years ago, by doctors who said that he was then dying with consumption. Since he has been in California, Mr. Reeves has held many important political offices and is now the state treasurer. He is in the jewelry business there and is known to the watchmakers throughout the country as the only successful one-armed watchmaker in the world.

OLDEST MEMBER

P.C. Tinan of Garrettsville, aged 85 years, the oldest member of the regiment present gave a short talk that was much enjoyed. In spite of his years, Mr. Tinan is well preserved and does not look past 70. L.D.Coy and David Biglow, the two youngest members of the regiment, both spoke. Before this meeting each thought that he was the younger. Both are 58 years old, but Mr. Biglow is just 12 days older than Mr. Coy. In point of service Mr. Biglow is also the oldest, having enlisted in 1862, while it was 1863, when Mr. Coy entered the service. Both were considerably under age at the time of their enlistment. R.C.Gibbons of Akron, and several others spoke. The meeting closed with the singing of "America."

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES

Peggy Mershon, 995 N.Stewart Rd., Mansfield, OH 44905

These two marriage certificates were purchased from a Mansfield antique dealer who had no clue to their origin. They were sold together and were in identical frames both purchased at The May Co. and appear to be from the same family. The submitter will be happy to return these documents to anyone of proven descent for the cost of purchase and postage.

The smaller document reads:

Barony of Scotland, No.611, Glasgow, 30th of Septr 1839, marriage recorded, that HENRY EVANS, Smith, Anderston, and MARY STIVEN, residing there have been three times lawfully proclaimed in several of the Parish Churches of Barony, in order to marriage, and no objections offered, is attested by David MacBrayne(?) Session Clerk. I hereby certify that the above mentioned parties were married by me at Glasgow this 30th day of Sept. 1839. Hal McGilney(?) Minister of St.Mark's.

The larger document reads:

This is to certify that on the sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord One Thousand eight hundred and sixty seven at Christ Church in the City of Brooklyn in the Diocese of New York I joined together in holy matrimony RALPH HENRY WARNER and MARGARET EVANS according to the rites of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and in conformity with the laws of the state of New York. In witness whereof I have hereunto put my name this 16th day of May AD 1867. E.H.-Canfield, Rector of Christ Church Brooklyn.

FRENCH FAMILY

Louise Howison, 115 Blaine Ave., Richwood OH 43344

This Bible was loaned to me by Cleo Laura Cress. It was given to her by her father, Frank E. Sloop, July 26, 1960. Frank found it in the attic of the Owen Livingston home, 148 North Franklin St., Richwood OH, where he was repairing electric wiring. Mr. Livingston, not recognizing any names, gave the Bible to Frank who in turn gave it to his daughter. Owen Livingston died in the early 1940's and the Bible was found many years before that. There was no date in the Bible, but it is obviously old. Both the front and back covers are off, but are with the Bible. A letter had been left inside, dated August 1845, from Susan M. French, was addressed to "Beloved Sister."

DIVORCE, PENNSYLVANIA STYLE (1816)

Leo H. Garman, C.G., 449 Parkview Ave., Elmhurst IL 60126

Christina "Bardshare" (Bartsher) was granted a divorce from John Bartsher, 23 Aug 1816, by the Court of Common Pleas of Northumberland Co., at Sunbury PA[1]. The grounds were adultery and bigamy.

It appears that after marrying in 1804, probably at Sunbury PA, John & Christina moved to Ohio and settled at or near Adelphi, Ross County. Evidence upon which the divorce was granted consisted of Christina's complaint dated 18 Sep 1815[2]; a deposition by Thomas Loyd dated 6 Sep 1814 at Sunbury[3], but pertaining to events which occurred from about 1808 or 1809 to about 1811, while he was living at Pickaway County, Ohio; and a deposition by Johannes Werline of Fairfield County, Ohio, given to Edw. Chapman at Fairfield Co. and dated in 1816[4].

Pickaway County wasn't erected until 12 Jan 1810, but Adelphi, Ross County, is right on the (now) Pickaway county line. Furthermore, the present boundary of Fairfield County is only 6 miles from Adelphi, and at the time under discussion Fairfield was even closer to Adelphi. As a result, all of the Ohio places concerned in this article were most probably within a very few miles of each other.

Christina's complaint states that following their 1804 marriage, she lived with John Bartsher as his wife, and was acknowledged as such by him and her neighbors and acquaintances, "and although by the laws of God, as well as by their mutual vows and faith plighted to each other, they were reciprocally bound to that constancy and chastity and uniform regard which ought to be inseparable from the marriage state, yet the said John, in violation of his marriage vow, did...in the year 1811 or 1812 enter into a second marriage."

Loyd testified that he saw John and Christina living as man and wife in about 1808 and 1809, but that in about 1811 John reportedly married another woman, "and lived with her more than a year, as man and wife," and that Loyd frequently had seen them together. He testified further that John Bartsher "showed the aforesaid woman to Deponent's wife, telling her that she was his wife, in the presence of Deponent."

Werline testified that he knew John Bartsher in the Fairfield County area in about 1812. At that time, John was living in a house owned by a Mr. Hibray, with a woman he called his wife. Werline understood that John married the woman at Chillicothe, and that her name before marriage was Tillie Cradelis. Werline goes on: "...that after living together for some time, perhaps about a year, she left him. That the said defendant used great entreaty to get her back again. That she did return and lived some time longer with him, then left him again. That the said Defendant lived some time longer in that country and then left it. That since that time the said woman is married to another man; at least she lives with another man in character of husband and wife. The name of the man she now lives with is Alexander Berry. That the said Deponent has heard the said Berry say he was married to her, and this in presence of said woman."

Circumstantial evidence indicates that John and Christina Bartsher probably were the parents of the Catharine Bartsher who was born at Adelphi, Ross Co., Ohio, 5 Apr 1807, and who was "taken to Pennsylvania" in October 1810[5]. John Bartsher had witnessed a deed for his brother-in-law and sister, Henry and "Molly" (Bartsher) Zimmerman, as grantors, at Adelphi on 24 Jan 1810[6]. John's philandering may well have commenced (or been discovered) between January and October 1810, since one may conclude that everyone was on good terms in January when the deed was witnessed, but that Christina went back home to Pennsylvania and took daughter Catharine with her, after she learned of John's indiscretions.

There are a couple of sequels to the story. Henry Zimmerman's son, Israel, was born at Adelphi, 12 Dec 1804[7], and years later went from Ohio to Sunbury, PA, where he lived for at least a couple of years. He married his (we assume) cousin, Catharine Bartsher, there, on 18 Apr 1827[8], and their first child, Asaph Larrick Zimmerman, was born at Sunbury PA 5 Aug 1828[9]. Soon afterwards, Israel and his family moved back to Ohio and settled in Pickaway County[10].

John Bartsher must have persisted in his wayward behavior, inasmuch as when his father, Henry Bartsher (also, of course the father of Mary "Molly" (Bartsher) Zimmerman) wrote his will at Northumberland Co., PA, 6 Nov 1828, he said, "...and provided my eldest son Jno: Bartsher should live to return...my executors are to pay him twenty-five dollars..."[11].

REV. ELISHA R. HIBBARD

Agnes Hower Wells, 6821 SR 366, Huntsville OH 43324

The New Jerusalem Magazine, Vol.21 (1847-1848) was published by the Swedenborgian Church, and was found at Urbana University, Urbana, OH. It was published at Boston, but contained items about church members from everywhere. The following item appeared in Dec 1847, page 119.

The following notice of the sickness and death of Mr. Hibbard has been received from his son, Rev.J.R.Hibbard, of Peoria.

For the last few weeks I have been realizing more fully than heretofore, the heavenly influence upon the mind, exerted by the lucid views of the New Church with regard to "the state of man after death," compared with that resulting from the obscurity of the views generally entertained upon that subject in the old church.

My father, the REV. ELISHA HIBBARD, of Lucas Co., Ohio, has been called to the spiritual world. And while I deeply sympathize with my dear mother, and the other members of our afflicted family, and especially with the little society to which he has for the last few years been ministering, and who are now destitute, I can but feel that for him "To die is gain." He died August 11th, of typhus fever, after an illness of 5 or 6 days, in the 59th year of his age.

A direct descendant of one of the puritans who landed on Plymouth rock, he inherited much of their hatred of tyranny, love of freedom, and deep religious devotion. While yet a member of the Old Church, his frequent and often somewhat harsh condemnation of what he regarded as wrong in the conduct, more than in the faith of its members, was not calculated to make him beloved save by the few who were his intimate and tried friends.

In the ordering of Divine Providence he was led to examine the doctrines of the New Church, and in the winter of 1837/8, embraced them as a system of truths, "coming down from God out of heaven." Ardent in his feelings, he espoused the cause of the New Church with much warmth, and was ordained into her ministry June 9th, 1839. For the last 5 years he has resided in Lucas County, Ohio, where a small society has been formed through his labors. Deeply devoted to his family, he lived to see his children, 5 in number, married and well provided for in this life, and his wife and most of his children with their families receivers of those heavenly doctrines which afforded him so much delight the last few years of his stay with us, and gave to him a painless passage to the spiritual world. My sister, in writing to me the particulars of his death, says, "he appeared to suffer little or no pain, and for the last 12 hours moved neither hand nor foot. His corpse was the sweetest looking one I ever saw; he looked as perfectly natural as could be, and there was that peculiar sweet smile around his mouth, which he always had when speking to little children."

EAST PALESTINE, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, SCHOOL LIST, 1878

Carol Willsey Bell, C.G.

The following list of names consists of those on the "Roll of Honor" at the East Palestine Public Schools during the 1878 school year. Three different lists appeared in the Valley Echo, published at East Palestine, on these dates:

LIST 1 = JUNE 15, 1878 LIST 2 = OCT. 18, 1878 LIST 3 = NOV. 8, 1878

A.Y. TAYLOR, Superintendent, reported that "to reach the Roll of Honor, the pupil's deportment must be 100 per cent; he must not have a record of absence amounting to more than one day during the month, nor more than four marks for tardiness; and the average record in recitations must reach at least 96 per cent." Several of the students appeared on all three lists; some only once or twice. Interestingly, A.Y.Taylor's Dept. D lists 2 & 3 also contained grades, ranging from 90 to 100. The symbol  indicates that these names were not supposed to be on the list, as noted in the next issue.

TEACHER, DEPT.A	MISS M. MORELAND	TEACHER, DEPT.B	MISS E.O. (LIZZIE) NELSON
TEACHER, DEPT.C	MRS. C.M. TAYLOR	TEACHER, DEPT.D	A.Y. TAYLOR

Lists of students may help to solve genealogical problems, even though they do not name parents or give relationships. As a general rule, they began to appear in local newspapers in the 1870's, although some probably appear in earlier years, as well.

CRAWFORD COUNTY, OHIO, INDEX TO DIVORCES, 1844-1869

The Crawford Co. Chapter OGS, in its publication Crawford County Tracking, published a continuing list of divorce references found in Common Pleas Journals. Occasionally, additional information was published with the notation, such as names of children or maiden name of wife. The lists appeared in their Volume 14 pages 19,31,40 & 57. The editor, Mary Fox, advises us that anyone interested in these records is to write to her, and not to the Court House. Her address is 931 Marion Rd., Bucyrus, OH 44820.

LEWIS KELLENBERGER, COLUMBIANA COUNTY SOLDIER

Randal J. Beeson, 801 W.Birmingham St., Broken Arrow OK 74011

Lewis Kellenberger enlisted in Company H, 115th OVI on 17 Aug 1862 for three years. As noted in the Spring 1987 issue of THE REPORT, this unit saw service in Tennessee, guarding Sherman's supply lines during the assault on Atlanta. Lewis's son, Lewis Kellenberger Jr., was my great-uncle and I first became interested in his life when, as a young teen-ager, I was given his Civil War discharge paper. His service in the war was typical; no heroics or commendations, lengthy periods or illness and drudgery of a soldier's life. Most of the information contained herein is taken from his service record.

The Company Descriptive Book and Company Muster-in Roll indicate that the 115th trained at Camp Massillon, Massillon, OH and was mustered into service on 19 Sep 1862. At the time of his enlistment in Knox Township, Columbiana Co., Lewis was 20 years old, 5 feet 10 inches tall, with a fair complexion, brown eyes and light hair. He listed his occupation as farmer.

The muster rolls indicate that he was on detached duty in Warsaw KY with his company on 10 Apr 1863. From Sep 1863 to 12 Apr 1864 he is listed as sick in the hospital in Murfreesboro. In affidavits submitted after the war to support his pension claim, Charles F. Lease, sergeant, Company H, and Alfred White, private, Company H, stated that Lewis had contracted measles while at Nashville. This disease later developed into throat and bronchial ailments, resulting in a loss of voice, according to the affidavit submitted by Robert B. Votaw of Company H.

From Sept 1864 to May 1865, Lewis was on a light duty schedule and detailed to work in the government bakery in the Commissary Department at Murfreesboro. While working there, he frequently complained of stomach ailments, according to the postwar affidavit supplied by George A. Ruff of Company D.

The 115th OVI was mustered out of service at Murfreesboro on 22 June 1865. Lewis apparently returned to Columbiana County. On 6 Feb 1871, he wed Nancy Jane CAMPF of Columbiana County and the couple established residence near Winona OH. A daughter Mary E. was born 19 May 1875, and a son, Lewis M., was born 13 June 1879. According to affidavits supplied by neighbors supporting his pension application on 2 May 1898, Lewis continued to be plagued with health problems during his adult life. For the last eight years of his life, he was under frequent care by a physician for stomach and bronchial problems.

After his death on July 27, 1905, his widow Nancy submitted an affidavit in support of her pension. This document stated that when she married Lewis, his surname was "Cullenberger" and that it appeared as "Kahllenberger" in the war records. She requested that her name appear as "Kahllenberger" the same as her husband. Interestingly enough, a review of military and pension records in Lewis's file indicated 13 variant spellings of his surname! However, none of these spellings appears as "Cullenberger" or "Kahllenberger."

Lewis and Nancy are buried in Grandview Cemetery in Salem, and the surname on their tombstone is "Cullenberger." Lewis Jr. also adopted the Cullenberger surname, operating a Silver King tractor dealership at the intersection of 10th St. and Lincoln Avenue in Salem until his death in 1952.

How's Your Name Spelled?

Clan diggers of dead ancestors beware, the various spellings of your surname can cause lots of headaches!

Keep your mind open, and don't hastily refuse to check out another possible spelling for your surname.

In my own case I've found 18 spellings for myself or some of my relatives. My personal lineage goes from Grismore, to Griesemer, to Griesheimer, to de Croismare.

De Croismare is from the Normandy area of France. When they migrated to Alsace as Huguenots ca 1538, and later to Lampertheim, District of Worms (Germany), they "converted their name to Griesemer (or Griesheimer) its phonetic equivalent." They migrated to Hereford Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania on the ship "Thistle" in August 1730.

The 18 different spellings that I've found to date are:

de Croismare[1]	Gresimore[7]	Grisamore[13]
Cressimer[2]	Gressmehr[8]	Grisemer[14]
Greasemore[3]	Griessmer[9]	Grismore[15]
Greasmer[4]	Griesemer[10]	Grismer[16]
Greasmore[5]	Griesheimer[11]	Grissemore[17]
Greisamer[6]	Grisamer[12]	Kriesemer[18]

To date I have only proven why one "relative" changed his name. Reverend Father Raymond J. Griesmer, a Roman Catholic priest, said his father and uncles dropped one "e" from Griesemer to Griesmer when they arrived in Cleveland, Ohio in the 1880s. "One legend has it that John Griesemer wanted to have his name painted on the window of his shoe shop in Cleveland and the painter couldn't get it all on. The painter suggested that an extra "e" be eliminated so it would fit. John agreed and dropped it. His brothers followed suit."

Later Rev. Griesmer dropped another "e" from Griesmer to Grismer. He said he "dropped the "e" because people were always getting "ie" turned into "ei". With the "e" eliminated people pronounced and spelled my name correctly. In my profession people need to know my name." He made the spelling change legal in the Akron, Ohio Probate Court ca 1940. Then Father Grisemer said, "Now that I'm retired I resumed spelling my name with "e" as it was originally. That is; I do this when writing to relatives and friends. For business reasons I continue to write Grismer. When my sister Mary buys my tombstone she will have my name written GRIESMER to conform to my parents tombsone."

Boy, won't that confuse future clan diggers of dead ancestors!

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE MORGAN FAMILY FROM 1810-1910
(Given to me by Virginia McFarlan, 138 Locust Lane, Cadiz, Ohio 43907)

This history of the Morgan Family was read at the Centennial Reunion of the Morgan Family and loaned to Edith Coleman by Mrs. Joel Walker to make these copies as follows.

Many years ago, before Horace Greely published his well known advice to young men to go West, the Ohio progenitors of the assembled company of cousins, full of ambition and energy, felt cramped in their Eastern homes and wished for a place where there was more room and larger possibilities. Realizing that, "Westward the tide of empire takes its course," they fell in with the tide which carried them over the rugged mountains and fertile valleys of the wilderness and landed them in the far west among the "Sun-kissed hills" of old Belmont County, (in) the young and promising State of Ohio, in the fall of 1810; so says Grandfather Morgan, but Henry is not just sure of the date but assents to that like the little boy who said,"It's so for when mother says it is so, it's so, if it ain't so."

However, Henry learned from the records that Philip Morgan secured a deed for a farm, dated October 29, 1811.

The farm purchased is now known as the "Kgettering Farm", and is located near the road connecting the two greatest cities of the world, Fairpoint and Shepherdstown, Ohio. There they with willing hands and stout hearts and daring courage, proceeded to clear away the great "Primeval Forest", build a home, and rear a family. How well they succeeded financially, we do not know nor care but little. But we are very much interested today in the family they reared.

Philip and Susanna Morgan, the progenitors of the Morgan family were of Welsh decent.

Philip Morgan was born in 1765 in Baltimore County, Maryland, and died in Belmont County, Ohio in 1834. His wife survived him seven or eight years. Their family approached the Roosevelt requirements of thirteen or more. It consisted of four boys and three girls; namely, Jacob, Cathrine, George, Philemon, Elizabeth, Amos, and Rebecca.

Jacob married Miss Mary Love, a neighbor's daughter, and in about 1820 moved to Richland County, Ohio, where they purchased a farm 12 miles west of Mansfield, Ohio. Jacob died in 1865. Their family consisted of 4 boys and 4 girls; namely Thomas, William A., Joseph, Mary J., Isabelle, Susanna, George Love and Cathrine.

William moved to Iowa, Joseph to Little Rock, Arkansas, where he died, Mary married a Mr. Patterson, Isabelle married a Mr. Bush, and moved to Missouri, Susanna married a Mr. Small, George Love moved to Chilecothe, Missouri, Cathrine married a Mr. Phares and moved to Iowa, Philemon Morgan married Miss Mary Clark and moved to Coshocton County, Ohio where they purchased a farm twelve miles from Coschoton. The farm was afterwards sold or traded for a store, which was conducted for a few years. Later they sold the store and moved to Utica, Licking County, Ohio where Philemon died in 1869.

Their family consisted of five boys, Amos, George, William, Wheeler, and James W.; also of two girls, Anna Clark, and Sarah Jane. I am not able to give any further history of this family except that Wheeler died several years ago.

Cathrine Morgan narried Jeremiah Elliott, and Rebecca his brother, John Elliott, both farmers of Carroll County, Ohio. Elizabeth married John Forrest or Morgan County, Ohio and of those families we have no further knowledge.

Amos Morgan married Miss Cathrine Kgettinger, a neighbor's daughter, and spent most of their lives in Harrison and Belmont Counties, Ohio. Their family consisted of two boys, Henry and Philip, and three girls, Mary Ann, Eliza Jane, and Martha M.

Philip married and reared one daughter. I suppose he is still the proprietor of the large Morgan Hotel in Des Moines, Iowa, where his daughter still resides. Mary Ann married a Mr. Logan who resides at Newton, Jasper County, Iowa, and have two children, Mary Cathrine Dillon, Monroe County, Iowa, and Harriet Westbrook, Newton, Iowa. Eliza Jane married John Edwards who resides at Cadiz, Ohio, and have one daughter, Mrs. Samuel Chaney, who are with us today. They also had one son who in his early manhood was called away while preparing himself for the ministry some years ago. Martha Victoria married Hace Edwards, a brother of John. They reside near New Athens and have one daughter, Merva Edwards.

Four members of this branch of the Morgan family have added only six children to the family enrollment, but Henry's record is yet to be heard. He married Miss Anna Hatcher, after which they settled near St. Clairsville, Belmont County, Ohio, on the old home farm where he still resides. His family increased little by little as follows: Nina M., St. Clair, D., Elizabeth D., Cathrine L., Edwin B., C. Ray, Addie, Esther, M.L., Mary, Kinsey. Henry was a school teacher, and most of his children are also teachers. Henry is the oldest member of the family as far as we have learned, being 86 years of age, still hale and hearty. Part of his children are married, and part of them are still with him.

The last member of the Philip Morgan family to be considered is George Morgan, who is either the grandfather or the great grandfather of most of the company gathered here today to enjoy the Centennial Re-union. George Morgan married Miss Cathrine Jenkins who was born and reared among the Morgan neighbors. She, like the Morgans was of Welsh descent, and an estimable young lady. As I remember her, she was an indulgent, godly, and dear old grandmother.

George was born February 23, 1793, and died September 23, 1849, being 56 years and 8 months of age. Cathrine Jenkins Morgan was born May 13, 1789, and died November 13, 1865, being 67 years and 6 months of age. To this union were born and reared to manhood and womanhood seven sons, and two daughters; Marshall, Amon, Philip, John, Sarah Ann, Levi, George, Susanna, and Milton C. The first son was born when his mother (was) 19 years of age. Marshall, the eldest son married Miss Elenor Whan of near New Athens. They resided in New Athens for a time, then moved to the Whan homestead where they spent the remainder of their allotted time in the interest of their family and the community. To this union were born eight children, five of whom married and settled down near home and are with us today.

Philip Morgan married Miss Sarah Ann Seebirt an(d) settled down on a part of the Seebirt farm where they spent their lives successfully.

To them were born nine children, eight of them lived to rear families, and six of them are here to-day, with us. All of this family except one settled near home, she is not far away.

Amos married a neighbor's daughter, Miss Caroline Huntsman, and settled near home also. To this union were born ten children, eight of whom are still living, but are somewhat scattered. The eight living children are all daughters of (the) Amos Morgan Family.

John married a neighbor's daughter, Miss Eliza Rusk. To this union were born two sons, but she having been called home at an early age, Miss Ella Yost became the second wife. To this union were born two daughters. The Dr. John Morgan settled near home, too, and three of the children and their families are with us to-day.

Sarah Ann Morgan married Mr. Eli Seebirt, a neighbor's son, and brother of Philip Morgan's wife. They settled on a part of the Seebirt homestead. To them were born four children, two of whom are still living, the one on the old homestead, and the other on an adjoining farm, and are both with us to-day.

George Morgan married Miss Sarah Jane Porterfield, in Belmont County, a little farther from home than any of the others. To them were born six children, five of whom are still living, but are now somewhat scattered. (see attached Bible record and additional info. for this line)

Susanna Morgan married a neighbor's son, James C. McConnell, and settled down on the McConnell homestead, where she answered the summons home, leaving a family of part grown children, two having preceeded her beyond the pearly gates. This entire family have wandered far from the old homestead, but are not lost; some of them at least are a great credit to the family.

Milton C. Morgan married Miss Euphemia Braden. To this union, alone, no children were born, and after a few years they were divorced. Milton then wandered away and was a lost sheep for thirty years or more. About three years ago he was found in St. Louis, Missouri. He then had a second wife, to whom had been born one child which had died when about twelve years of age. He has escaped again. He seemed to be quite well fixed and owned a farm 30 or 40 miles from St. Louis. It is supposed that he moved to a city of about 10,000 inhabitants, near which his farm was located.

With this brief general history of the family we wish to present a brief statistical history of the one son, George Morgan, who with most of his descendants remained in the old home community.

Not having the full statistics of the Amos Morgan family, or branch, we are not able to make a report on it.

If each of the seven branches, representing the seven sons and daughters of the pioneer pair, Philip and Susanna Morgan, have continued to increase in numbers as has the George Morgan family, or branch and were all here, we should have an assemblage, including husbands and wives of 1890 persons gathered together, to-day, for this Centennial Re-union. Many as we are, I have never known a lazy member of the family. Neither have I known one of them to be begging bread. The one fault of the family is sticking too closely to business, to the neglect of cultivating the social side of life. To over come this fault this family re-union was planned, and it seems so successful that we should keep it going.

The following Bible transcription is taken from a Bible found in the basement of the home of Ralph E. Furbay, Canton, Ohio, by his granddaughter, Susanna Furbay Pugh. It was found in 1985, just a few weeks before his death at age 93. The Bible now belongs to the Belmont County Historical Society.

Editor's notes:
Ralph E. Furbay was the grandson of George G. & Sarah J. Morgan. I remember meeting his cousin Harold Webster when on a family vacation in Kansas City, and he looked enough like my grandfather to be his twin brother. I also met Harold's sister, Jemima Lynn, a few days prior, in Halstead, Kansas. We have lost track of that side of the family, since most of them did not have children. I do have quite a few old family photos to share if any descendants are located.

By Cameron R. Stewart, 225 S. Washington, New Ulm, MN 56073. 1986. 2258 pp. Hard Cover. Illustrations. Index. $99.00.

The author presents a unique coding system that could prove helpful to compilers interested in publishing someday. Each person within a family group is classified genealogically to indicate the relationship to the progenitor, family group head, or common ancestor, and to each of the other members of the family group. The relationship between members within the group can be determined by comparing code letters.

OHIO 1835 TAX DUPLICATE - Published April 1988

Compiled by Gerald M. Petty $100.00

An excellent source of genealogical information. Over 190,000 names, about 6,000 cross references including every person listed in the Ohio 1835 tax duplicates — many of whom paid Chattel Tax as well as all who paid Property Tax. Those who paid Chattel Tax were people who owned a horse or cow and might otherwise be omitted from such a tax duplicate. A very complete source of information, containing counties, townships, villages, incorporations, towns, etc. Invaluable to the genealogical researcher.

ALSO AVAILABLE

Index of the Ohio 1825 Tax Duplicate
Gerald M. Petty, Compiler $80.00
All names in the tax duplicate are indexed, including taxpayers, delinquent taxpayers, some original proprietors, etc. The index gives the county, page, and a coded description of the information in the original. Tables give the dates of organization, of the counties, the pertinenet microfilm numbers and a finder for names where the original and microfilm lack page numbers. There are about 90,000 name - page entries, and about 3,000 cross references.

Ohio 1810 Tax Duplicate
Gerald M. Petty, Compiler $75.00
Arranged in a statewide alphabetical list of names of taxpayers, with an index of names of original entries. This is a nearly complete reproduction of the data in the original manuscripts. The name of the taxpayer, land area, and tax are given. Usually the range, township, and section, or the Virginia Military District entry number, or other land grant lot number are given; these usually locate the land within 1 mile. The political township and the name of the original entry are often given - many taxpayers were also original entries. Outline maps compare Ohio in 1810 to Ohio today.

North Carolina 1840 Federal Census Index
Gerald M. Petty, Compiler $75.00
The index contains about 95,000 names and about 2,000 surname cross references.

Index of the Ohio Squirrel Hunters Roster
Gerald M. Petty, Compiler $20.00
About 17,500 name-page entries, about 300 surname cross references. This alphabetical list is based on the original in the Ohio State Archives at the Ohio Historical Society. The original and index indicate 3542 persons who were paid (and were living) 1908 to 1919 or later for service in and near Cincinnati in September, 1862. The index gives name, rank, county of residence, and page. It is, in effect, a supplement to Ohio Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Rebellion published about 1886-1891.

Index of Ohio Girls Industrial School Inmates Case Records
Gerald M. Petty, Compiler $10.00
The index includes about 3550 names of 3495 persons who were committed by probate judges, at ages 7-18. The original ledgers have been copied on microfilm; the original gives usually dates of birth and admission, names of both parents, etc.

GENE. CENTER LIB., BOX 71343 OR, MARIETTA, GA 30007-1343

CINCINNATI IN 1825

This reprint of Harvey Hall's "Cincinnati City Directory for 1825" is filled with valuable information for the genealogist. Unlike other directories which only list prominent citizens, this one lists every head of household (male and female) residing in Cincinnati in 1825, along with their address, their occupation, and, remarkably, their place of birth! The birthplaces are especially helpful for this period preceding the 1850 census. What's more, a street-by-street analysis often reveals that the neighbors back in Pennsylvania or Ireland or wherever remained neighbors after their move to Cincinnati, giving the genealogist even more helpful clues. Softbound, 86 pp., indexed. Price: $11.00 plus $1.50 postage and handling. Texas residents should add $.78 sales tax.

PIONEER OHIO NEWSPAPERS: 1793-1810 and 1802-1818
Genealogical and Historical Abstracts
by Karen Mauer Green

These two volumes of abstracts of some of the earliest newspapers in Ohio include over 85,000 references to the early settlers of Ohio and the Northwest Territory. The entries are especially strong in the Cincinnati, Steubenville, Marietta and Chillicothe areas, but include news of residents from all the Ohio settlements. There are many entries from the following counties: Ross, Hamilton, Adams, Belmont, Butler, Clermont, Champaign, Franklin, Gallia, Highland, Jefferson, Montgomery, Scioto, Muskingum, Warren and Washington. The bulk of the information concerns ordinary people such as farmers, merchants and artisans, but prominent Ohioans are also well represented. There is no duplication of material from the first volume. The overlap in years is due to the inclusion of more early newspapers in the second volume. The books contain a wealth of information on these pioneers in the form of marriages, obituaries, elections, court records, probate records, early advertisements, heirs, apprentices, militia, land disputes, occupations, former residences, estate settlements, divorce, local events and disputes, military expeditions and much, much more. Each abstract contains enough information to explain the context of the advertisement or article. Complete indexes of persons, place-names and subjects are included in these hardcover books containing 745 pages of genealogical information. GATEWAY to the W·E·S·T

Compiled by Ruth Bowers & Anita Short

Gateway to the West had a short but spectacular life as a periodical. In slightly more than ten years, from 1967 to 1978, it managed to cover some of the least accessible yet most important genealogical records of 76 of Ohio's 88 counties. From common pleas court records, guardianships, naturalizations, and deed abstracts to the more conventional births, marriages, deaths, cemetery records, and wills, Gateway offered a range of genealogical source materials unmatched by any other Ohio publication. At its peak it had a circulation of nearly 2,000, and when it ceased publication with Volume 11 in 1978, its fame had surpassed even that of the Old Northwest Genealogical Quarterly.

Ever since it ceased publication interest in the periodical has continued to grow, and demand for back issues has now so far outstripped availability that it is a rare thing to find a single issue anywhere on the market. For that matter, it is a rare thing to find a complete set even in a library. What is almost as bad, those libraries and individuals lucky enough to own a complete set have found that it is almost unusable without an index to the concentrated mass of material locked within its pages. Owing to the continuing demand for the work and the lack of a comprehensive index, it seemed a reasonable object to gather all the articles together and to bring them out in a reprint edition, complete with index.

Accordingly, the principal articles, arranged under their respective counties, have been consolidated into two large volumes—each with its own index—and reprinted under their original banner—Gateway to the West. Altogether, in nearly 2,000 pages, in some 350 articles naming more than 95,000 persons, in records ranging from Adams County to Wood County, from court records to church records, from township records to cemetery records, the researcher now has permanent access to a priceless body of material.

2 volumes. 2,000 pp. total. indexed. clothbound. 1989.
